OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK – PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS AND STATUS

Elections

May 16, 2017 Election

The City Clerk certified the results of the votes cast in the May 16, 2017 election. Staff handled over 1,000 calls on Election Day. Staff has also been busy addressing media questions following the election and answered 22 inquiries, issued two press releases and posted six election information items on social media.

Additional Election Activity

Staff conducted three mock elections at local elementary schools this week.

Business Improvement Districts (BID)

On May 30, 2017, the City Council adopted the Ordinance of Intention for the 2017 reconfirmation of assessments for the Little Tokyo Business Improvement District.

Records Management

A doctoral candidate from the University of Chicago researched the Great Depression in Los Angeles, with a focus on the LAPD response.

The Los Angeles City Historical Society will partner with the LA84 Foundation on the final installment of the 2017 Marie Northrop Lecture Series highlighting the administration of Mayor Tom Bradley. The final installment is titled "Los Angeles and the Olympics" and will occur on June 4, 2017 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the LA 84 Foundation facility, 2141 West Adams Blvd, Los Angeles, 90018.

Systems

Staff installed two replacement servers and disk storage in the City Hall data center. The new servers and storage will provide additional space for the N and P drives.

Neighborhood Council (NC) Funding Program

The NC Working Group, made up of board members from various NCs, continues to meet in preparation of the roll-out of the NC Funding Financial Management System. These members will be assisting in training treasurers from the entire network of NCs across the City on the use of the new online banking portal.

There are currently seven Neighborhood Councils with frozen funds due to NC Plan violations and/or unresolved financial management issues.
